

Friday 24th April

Good morning, Year 5!

It is time to enter the caves of the Cliffs of Possibility! Embark upon your adventure by logging onto Education City. Good luck with your quest!

Grammar

Watch the Grammar Adventures:

4a – The Cliffs of Possibility

4b – The Caves of Possibilities

The adventures show how to use modal verbs to show possibility.

Your task:

Write 8 sentences about Stig's journey through the caves. What could possibly happen on his adventure? What should he consider?

Include different modal verbs e.g.

Despite the many twisting paths, Stig should find the treasure easily if he follows the ancient, frayed map.

Modal Verbs
Obligation	Possibility	Ability
must should	will might would shall may could should can must	could can

To form negative sentences add not or n't to the verb.