

Afternoon project.

This week, I would like to see some creative craft rock pools. What animals do we find living in rock pools around the British coast?

How are rock pools created?

What lives in them?

Why do they live in them?

