

The school summer _____ was a tremendous success and raised lots of money.	whose	Since she was thrown off, the rider was now _____ of horses.	The train stood _____ on the tracks as the passengers boarded.	steal	MOVE BACK TWO SQUARES	After the long hike, the climber was feeling tired and _____.	fete	MOVE BACK TWO SQUARES
steel	 <h1>Mr Whoops' Homophone Spelling Game</h1> You'll need: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - different coloured counters - a die - whiteboards If you land on a square with a homophone word, you must write a sentence containing that word or move back to where you came from. If you land on a square with a sentence, you must write down the homophone that is missing or move back to where you came from. First player to the finish line is the winner!  							It is a crime to _____ other people's property.
The boy, _____ name was Jack, won a medal for karate.								weary
who's								Miss a turn!
stationery								fate
Finish Start	wary	Miss a turn! 	The student purchased pens and folders from the _____ shop.	The fortune teller believed in _____.	stationary	The cutlery set was made of stainless _____.	MOVE BACK TWO SQUARES	"_____ done their homework?" asked the teacher.