

About To Hatch

For the last few days, they had been falling from the sky. Nobody knew where they had come from; nobody knew why they were there.

The mysterious objects, most of them spherical in shape, lay there on the beach, motionless, immovable despite the tide's best efforts to eradicate them from the shoreline.

Then, a crack began to appear on the surface...

Question Time!

1. Where might these objects have come from?
2. Why is the surface of the nearest object cracking?
3. What is inside the objects? Are all of the objects the same?

4. What could happen next?
5. If you came across one of these, how would you react?
6. Do these objects remind you of anything?
7. Why do you think these objects have landed on the beach? Is it by chance or is it deliberate?

Sentence Challenge!

Verbs are action/doing words.

Look at the writing below. Can you find the verbs and replace them with more exciting vocabulary? Can you add some adverbs to the sentences too?

Out of nowhere, oddly shaped objects came down from the sky. They went into the sand with a loud thump.

A group of people walking along the beach saw the objects, and walked towards them.

A crack went on the surface, and the gathering crowd made a noise.

Perfect Picture!

The object in the picture is beginning to crack and open. Can you draw whatever is inside?
