

The Keys Newsletter

26th September 2025

Dear Parent / Carer,

We have a busy and exciting few weeks ahead at school.

This Thursday, all pupils will have their individual and sibling school photographs taken. Please ensure your child arrives in full school uniform, looking smart and ready for their photo.

Year 4 pupils are also preparing for their upcoming trip to Port Sunlight on the Wirral. This will be a fantastic opportunity to explore this unique village.

The week after, we'll be celebrating our annual Harvest Festival and marking the beginning of Black History Month. A range of activities will take place across the school, including assemblies and classroom lessons, giving pupils the chance to reflect and learn.

Have a lovely weekend,

Mr Paul Robinson
Headteacher

SCHOOL PHOTOGRAPHS

On Thursday 2nd October we will be having our individual photographs during the morning.

If your child usually arrives to school in their P.E kits on Thursdays, we would like them to arrive to school, in full school uniform. Please send their P.E kit so they can change in the afternoon, ready for their normal P.E lesson.

Last academic year, our school community raised over £1,500 for books for our school library! Keeping fresh, exciting, and current books ready and available for anyone to read and enjoy free of charge is so important to us, and we are so grateful for all the support you have given us.

This year, we are looking to increase our library stock with books suitable for our youngest readers, to ensure that all of our pupils can use and enjoy such a special place.

Our next Scholastic Book Fair will be held from Friday 3rd October until Wednesday 8th October on the school playground. You will have the opportunity to browse and buy books before school and after school.

Please bear in mind we are a cashless school and you can now pay for books whilst at the fair using the QR code on display.

Please remember to bring your mobile phones and credit/debit cards to the fair as the card details need to be entered.

Many thanks for your support.

Forgotten Items

There has been an increase in forgotten items following last week's message regarding items handed in at the office because they have been forgotten in the morning.

We have water bottles, coats, lunches and PE kits to name but a few. Every time this happens, the staff in the office must leave their own work, enter a classroom, stop and disturb a lesson, and then take a child away from their schoolwork to receive and put the item in the correct place.

Could we please ensure children come to school fully prepared.

Key Rings on School Bags – Reminder

We have recently noticed an increase in personal key rings being attached to St Peter's school book bags. While this may seem like a small detail, we'd like to remind everyone that personal items such as key rings have not been permitted in the past.

Unfortunately, we've had a few incidents this week where key rings have gone missing, and we've not as of yet been able to identify who may have taken them. To help prevent further issues and ensure all belongings remain safe, we kindly ask that children do not bring personal items including key rings on their school bags.

Thank you for your understanding and support.

Important Information:

Applying for FSM/Pupil Premium Funding

We need to be sure that the school receives all of the funding to which it is entitled, so that we can provide the best possible support for our children. If you or your partner are in receipt of any of the benefits below, you may be able to register for Free School Meals. This would then enable school to claim Pupil Premium, which could raise an extra £1515. This could be used to fund valuable support such as extra tuition, additional support staff or contributions towards trips. Pupil premium funding can also be claimed for pupils whose parents are in the forces, in the care of the local authority or adopted.

If you do receive one of these benefits, it is important that you register for Free School Meals, even if your child is in Reception, Y1 and Y2 and receives Universal Infant Free School Meals.

- Income Support
- Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance
- Income-related Employment and Support Allowance
- support under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- the guaranteed element of Pension Credit
- Child Tax Credit (but not Working Tax Credit) and your annual gross income (as assessed by HM Revenue and Customs) is not more than £16,190
- Working Tax Credit 'run on' – paid for 4 weeks after you stop qualifying for Working Tax Credit

If you think you may be entitled, please complete the forms which were sent home in the children's bags last week, and return it to school as soon as possible so that we can check on your behalf.

Please contact the school office if you have any further questions.

Thank you for your support.

World Mental Health Day

We are coming together in yellow on World Mental Health day (10th October) to raise awareness of our mental health and show children and young people they're not alone with their mental health.

Right now, the world can be a tough place for children and young people to grow up in – and they are feeling the pressure. We want young people to know that they don't have to go through this alone.

Please add something yellow to your child's uniform for the day; ribbons, socks, tie, or swap their shirt to a yellow top with their usual trousers skirt, or vice versa. (It is not a non uniform day).

Our Early Help approach

If you feel your child could benefit from some pastoral support, do not hesitate to contact us.

Our Senior Mental Health Lead ensures that all our pupils who require pastoral care for issues such as bereavement, friendship issues, home issues and anxiety, receive time each week with our pastoral staff who offer over 8 hours of individual and small group sessions.

If you feel that your child could benefit from this offer, please contact Mrs Colley.

The team has regular meeting to discuss and measure the progress of pupils who fall into specific categories, including attendance, wellbeing issues, SEN, behavioural issues and safeguarding.

SUPPORTING CHILDREN'S MENTAL HEALTH

10 Conversation Starters for Parents

Talking about mental health to children is sometimes hard. To the point that we can put off raising the subject, not wanting to unearth problems or raise overwhelming subjects that we perceive our child is too young or not ready for. But rather than keeping children in the dark, this guide is designed to help you confidently talk about mental health, so they feel comfortable talking about their own worries and end any stigma before it begins.

1 LISTEN

This sounds obvious, but it is not something we are always great at. Active listening is where we listen without interrupting or making judgements and shows interest in what is being said. If your child feels listened to in the 'smallest of problems' they will become confident that you will listen when the 'biggest of problems' arise.

2 ASK TWICE

The campaign from time to change is great. <https://www.time-to-change.org.uk/support-ask-twice-campaign>. Be tenacious about your child's wellbeing. Children instinctively know when your questions and support come from a place of wanting to help and care.

Are you sure?

3 THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS A STUPID QUESTION

This advice also relates to the first point. If your child can ask you any questions about the smallest of things and you listen and answer without shaming or belittling, then they will have more confidence to ask the biggest of questions.

4 BE OPEN AND HONEST

Children appreciate honesty, particularly if you are having to share information or talk about a difficult subject. For example, you may be talking about death or loss: 'It's very sad that Nana has died' or 'I feel sad that Nana has died'. How you talk about a subject will differ depending on their age and developmental maturity. Talking about death to a younger child for example will be different to that of an older teen, as their experience and understanding of death is different.

5 KNOW WHEN TO SEEK HELP

Assess the severity of the mental health difficulty you are noticing. Is the difficulty making it hard for your child to function regularly throughout everyday life? How frequently is your child affected, how long does it last and how persistent is it? Are they having problems controlling the difficulty? Talk to your child about your concerns and that it is likely they will need further support beyond family and friends.

6 TALK ABOUT MENTAL HEALTH NATURALLY

Speak about mental health as part of everyday life, so that talking about our feelings and those of others is normalised. If the usual 'are you ok?' is not creating an opportunity for dialogue then say something like 'I know when something like that has happened to me I felt like this... is that how you are feeling or are you feeling something else?'

7 EMPATHISE

'It makes sense that you would feel this way, it is understandable'. Children often worry about things that we, as adults, might see as trivial or silly. However, for them at their age and stage it is a big concern and they need our kindness and care when they show their vulnerability and share their worries.

8 HELP YOUR CHILD FEEL SAFE

Teens particularly feel that by talking about their worries or concerns that this will make things worse. Reassure your child that you will discuss a plan of action together and what may or may not need to happen next. If they are a younger child, it is likely you will need to lead the conversation and explain next steps.

9 MIND YOUR LANGUAGE

Be mindful of the language you use at home to describe and talk about mental health. Stigma often arises from misconceptions and a choice of language which is harmful. Using the word 'mental', 'man-up' or other such words in a derogatory way won't encourage your child to talk about their mental health for fear of being belittled.

10 IT IS OK TO SAY 'I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO NEXT'

Adults do not have all the answers but often children think they do. It is ok to acknowledge that what your child is experiencing is not something you have come across before or know anything about, but that you will work it out together and seek help together.
