

LO: What is an adverb?

What is the job of an adverb?

An adverb describes an action.

For example.

The boy ran down the street.

We know what he did but not how he did it. This is where an adverb can help us.

The boy ran quickly down the street. We could also have use happily, dangerously or cautiously.

Jan 14-18:57

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

LO: To understand what an adverb is.

Can you spot the adverbs in these sentences?

The boat sailed slowly towards the enormous iceberg.

The wind loudly howled around the little, wooden boat.

My hands were freezing so I blew hot air on them quickly to warm them up.

The walrus suddenly appeared before me.

Jan 14-18:57

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

LO: To improve our writing using adverbs.

What adverbs could we add to our sentences?

Can you think of some interesting adverbs we could use?

Adverb Bank

Jan 14-18:57

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

LO: To improve our writing using adverbs.

Task: To use our purple pens (or any colour you have at home) to add adverbs to our sentences.

Challenge

I can extend my sentences using verbs and adverbs to describe in more detail what has happened during my adventure.

Jan 14-18:57

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---