Message from St Peter's

1st July 2022

Dear Parent / Carer,

We were treated this week to a wonderful performance by Year 6 with their end of year production. This is always a strange time emotionally. Your heart fills with pride as a school as they show their energy and joy, performing such a funny and well produced performance, however each year, we also know that it's nearing the time that we say goodbye to them. Some tears were shed by children and parents, and they were a credit to themselves, the school and their families. Next week, most will embark on their transition week to Hope Academy, it will be strange not having them around.

Yesterday, I met with a past St Peter's head teacher, David Thorpe, who now is in charge of the Diocese Board of Education. He reminded me that it was traditional for the head teacher at St Peter's to go in the stocks at the summer fair. Despite responding that not all traditions are good traditions, his raised eyebrows suggested that this one is to stay! Please support the tremendous effort by the PTA and put some time aside to support this event.

Today you will receive a letter via email of the class teachers allocated for next year. The teacher's allocated classes have not changed, apart from us losing the Reception /Year 1 class. With regards to teaching assistants, we are still in the process of recruiting new staff and we will inform you as soon as we know more.

Kind Regards
Mr Robinson

Fearny Update

A couple of months ago we rescued a hedgehog off the school field, she weighed only 460g and was found to be suffering with Lungworm, Roundworm and Ringworm. The wonderful people at Haydock Hedgehog Helpers took her in and when she was feeling better she went to foster carers. Now weighing a very healthy 1066g Fearny was released back into the wild last night. Check out HHH on Facebook, if you would like to help they need old newspapers and kitchen roll, the little hogs also like dry kitten food. If you want to drop anything off with Mrs Fearn in the office she will take anything that is collected.
